The following action is in response to the amendment received March 1, 2006.

Examiner's Amendment

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

In line 13 of claim 8, after “reducing”, “the” has been changed to – a--.

The above change has been made to obviate an objection for lack of antecedent basis. Claim 8 now calls for reducing a pressure of the power shift clutch. There was no proper antecedent for “the pressure”.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 8-13 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record fails to show or render obvious a method of controlling a power train as defined in claim 8, including the steps of “reducing pressure of the power shift clutch to a residual level when the value of the transmission power supplied to the power-take-off exceeds the predetermined value of power delivered by the transmission to the power-take-off, and changing the ratio of the transmission when the predetermined value of the power delivered by the transmission to the power-take-off is exceeded.

The art of record also fails to show or teach a power train control as defined in claim 11 and particularly including a power shift clutch control state wherein the predetermined value of power delivered by the transmission to the power-take-off is exceeded by the actual value of power delivered by the transmission to the power-take-off and a pressure actuating of the power shift clutch for a forward or reverse gear is reduced to a residual lever to provide slipping of the power shift clutch.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Response to Amendment

In view of the cancellation of claims 4-7 and Applicant's arguments set forth in the Remarks (pages 5, line 1, to page 8, line 23, of the response filed March 1, 2006), the rejection of claims 4-7 under 35 USC 112, first paragraph, is withdrawn.

The rejection of claims 4, 5, and 7 under 35 USC 112, second paragraph, is also withdrawn, claims 4-7 having been cancelled.

Art Unit: 3681

In view of the cancellation of claims 4-7 and Applicant's arguments set forth in the Remarks (pages 9, line 3, to page 11, line 23, of the response filed March 1, 2006), the rejection of claims 4-7 under 35 USC 103(a) is withdrawn. New claims 8-13 are deemed allowable for the reasons set forth above under "Reasons for Allowance".
